The Easygoing Fan

Name: Minnie

Age: 28

Occupation: Customer Service Rep

Location: Seattle, WA

Minnie is a free-spirit with a demanding job in customer service. She does her best to make time for live music and local events with her friends on the weekends. She's not picky about music genre, but finding well organized events that fit her counter-culture tastes can be a challenge.

Goals

- Needs a reliable way to discover new events that fit her alternative style
- Wants to feel confident that events are well organized and she will have a good experience before she walks through the door

Behaviors

- Snaps photos to remember her experience and to be seen on social media
- Questions whether an event is still happening if she doesn't see updates on social media leading up to the date

Frustrations

- Hates when she has to hunt for trustworthy information and/or there's a lack of clarity leading up to her events
- Worries about losing physical paper tickets for event admission
